

Lessons for October 22nd, 2017
Twentieth Sunday after Pentecost

First Reading: Isaiah 45:1-7

Hear the Word of God as it is written in Isaiah chapter 45 verses 1 to 7.

Thus says the LORD to his anointed, to Cyrus, whose right hand I have grasped to subdue nations before him and strip kings of their robes, to open doors before him--and the gates shall not be closed: I will go before you and level the mountains, I will break in pieces the doors of bronze and cut through the bars of iron, I will give you the treasures of darkness and riches hidden in secret places, so that you may know that it is I, the LORD, the God of Israel, who call you by your name. For the sake of my servant Jacob, and Israel my chosen, I call you by your name, I surname you, though you do not know me. I am the LORD, and there is no other; besides me there is no god. I arm you, though you do not know me, so that they may know, from the rising of the sun and from the west, that there is no one besides me; I am the LORD, and there is no other. I form light and create darkness, I make weal and create woe; I the LORD do all these things.

This is the Word of the Lord.

Psalm 96:1-9, (10-13)

Let us all stand and read Psalm 96 verses 1 to 13, responsively by verse.

1

Sing to the LORD a new song; sing to the LORD, all the whole earth.

2

Sing to the LORD and bless his Name; proclaim the good news of his salvation from day to day.

3

Declare his glory among the nations and his wonders among all peoples.

4

For great is the LORD and greatly to be praised; he is more to be feared than all gods.

5

As for all the gods of the nations, they are but idols; but it is the LORD who made the heavens.

6

Oh, the majesty and magnificence of his presence!
Oh, the power and the splendor of his sanctuary!

7

Ascribe to the LORD, you families of the peoples; ascribe to the LORD honor and power.

8

Ascribe to the LORD the honor due his Name; bring offerings and come into his courts.

9

Worship the LORD in the beauty of holiness; let the whole earth tremble before him.

10

Tell it out among the nations: "The LORD is King! he has made the world so firm that it cannot be moved; he will judge the peoples with equity."

11

Let the heavens rejoice, and let the earth be glad; let the sea thunder and all that is in it; let the field be joyful and all that is therein.

12

Then shall all the trees of the wood shout for joy before the LORD when he comes, when he comes to judge the earth.

13

He will judge the world with righteousness and the peoples with his truth.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit. As it was in the beginning, is now and ever shall be, World without end. Amen.

Second Reading: 1 Thessalonians 1:1-10

Hear the Word of God as it is written in First Thessalonians chapter 1 verses 1 to 10.

Paul, Silvanus, and Timothy, To the church of the Thessalonians in God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ: Grace to you and peace.

We always give thanks to God for all of you and mention you in our prayers, constantly remembering before our God and Father your work of faith and labor of love and steadfastness of hope in our Lord Jesus Christ. For we know, brothers and sisters beloved by God, that he has chosen you, because our message of the gospel came to you not in word only, but also in power and in the Holy Spirit and with full conviction; just as you know what kind of persons we proved to be among you for your sake. And you became imitators of us and of the Lord, for in spite of persecution you received the word with joy inspired by the Holy Spirit, so that you became an example to all the believers in Macedonia and in Achaia. For the word of the Lord has sounded forth from you not only in Macedonia and Achaia, but in every place your faith in God has become known, so that we have no need to speak about it. For the people of those regions report about us what kind of welcome we had among you, and how you turned to God from idols, to serve a living and true God, and to wait for his Son from heaven, whom he raised from the dead-- Jesus, who rescues us from the wrath that is coming.

This is the Word of the Lord.
